Developing creative thinking skills in English Language Teaching

Marisa Constantinides, CELT Athens Teacher Education Centre Director

Creative thinking, or divergent production potential is present in all learners but many of the standard classroom activities stunt rather than develop it. This presentation aims to point out opportunities for making this part of our design including activities that have the potential of developing the different facets of this composite aspect of human intellect.

12:00-13:00

Teacher Development: a never ending story

George Vassilakis, Language Certification Director, PEOPLECERT

What is the difference between teacher education and teacher development? The terms are related, but while teacher education is relatively finite, teacher development goes on for ever. In this presentation, we will discover what is involved in teacher education and development and discuss ways in which teachers can continue developing and offering a better service to their students.

13:00-14:00

Lunch Break / Book Exhibition [Betsis ELT, Cengage-New Editions, Burlington, Express Publishing]

14:00-15:00

Η κατάκτηση της ευτυχίας: ουτοπία ή εφικτός στόχος;

Δέσποινα Δημητράκη, Εκπαιδευτική Ψυχολόγος

Στην ομιλία αυτή θα εξετάσουμε το ζήτημα της ευτυχίας από επιστημονική σκοπιά για να δούμε σε ποιο βαθμό οι άνθρωποι σήμερα είναι ευτυχισμένοι και, κυρίως, ποια χαρακτηριστικά, γνώρισμα και συνθήκες συμβάλλουν στην κατάκτηση της ευτυχίας. Στόχος είναι οι συμμετέχοντες να προσδιορίσουν και να μπορέσουν να αναπτύξουν τους παράγοντες που θα κάνουν τους ίδιους, τους μαθητές τους και τα παιδιά τους πιο ευτυχισμένα.

15:00-15:30
